Program Title		“The Power of Positive Relationships”
Hours	3 - 5	Presentation Format:	Microsoft PowerPoint & Video
Course Description		This is a hands-on – fun – get up and move program, examining how building trust, catching people doing things right, and re-directing negative energy can build a department, office, or any group into a real team with energy focused on discovering the best that each person has to offer. (Based on the training of killer whales at SeaWorld)
Highlights		Building and maintaining positive relationships at work can make any situation easier to handle. In addition, through the magic of 3 new behavior models, any person - any time, can have more enjoyment of the work they do and model it for those who work with them.
Special Points		Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the methods to build trust in your organization • Define the 3 critical steps to build trust within a department • Articulate how positive relationships change a work environment • Encourage creativity and innovation in the workplace • Outline ways to increase organizational spirit within a department, office or group of people • Apply the simplicity of redirecting negative behavior • Evaluate the “Whale Done” approach
